

Serving Texas Nonprofits

Weaver is a nationally-recognized, Texas-based firm with more than 600 professionals and offices in seven Texas cities: Dallas, Fort Worth, Houston, Austin, San Antonio, Conroe and Midland.

We have a dedicated practice focused on nonprofit and public sector entities across the state of Texas. It is one of the largest industry practices in the firm. Weaver provides services for more than 300 nonprofit organizations every year.

“We’ve enjoyed working with our Weaver team. They have been knowledgeable and helpful throughout the audit process. They have committed to provide a consistent team and have done so year after year. Their team takes the initiative and their pricing is competitive.”

—Weaver Nonprofit Client

Weaver is experienced not only with annual financial audits, but federal and state single audits, grant compliance and third-party grant compliance audits. In addition, we also provide public sector clients with internal audits (both outsourced and co-sourced), risk assessments, enterprise risk management consulting, business process improvement, IT audits, data analytics and forensic and litigation services.

With one of the largest and most respected nonprofit practices in the state, Weaver professionals are well-informed about the wide array of issues nonprofits face. Our broad and sustained experience enables us to take a particularly thoughtful approach, balancing your short-term reporting needs with your long-term objectives.

Weaver maintains active membership in quality assurance bodies such as:

- ▶ AICPA National Peer Review Committee
- ▶ AICPA Auditing Standards Board

Weaver has been serving Texas nonprofits for over 65 years. Through these years of service, we have become deeply familiar with the complexities of nonprofit accounting and financial reporting.
