AT A GLANCE

Our Alternative Investment Practice

The reality is alternative investment managers routinely rank their compliance and regulatory framework among their most pressing concerns.

While high returns remain the ultimate goal—legislative, regulatory and investment community demands have heightened the need for robust operational and financial reporting functions. To help you best manage compliance, risk and cost with comfortable transparency, Weaver's highly experienced alternative investment fund practice combines audit, accounting, tax and advisory expertise with in-depth industry knowledge and established relationships among leading market and industry participants. We are knowledgeable in regulatory requirements and experienced in complex fund operations in the U.S. and around the globe.

Concise, effective communication is critical to your capital raising efforts, and it is the reason our engagements are so successful. Our alternative investment fund team knows the challenges and requirements that management teams face. Weaver's partners and senior team members work closely with our clients helping you stay current on regulatory issues and technical updates, as well as the impact these may have on your business. Guidance for navigating the complex challenges affecting your operations allowing you to concentrate on fund management and client relationships is what counts. This is nothing new at Weaver—it's the way we've done business for more than 65 years.

We serve more than 500 hedge, private equity, venture and real estate funds controlling billions of invested capital. Our industry-dedicated professionals offer decades of experience serving the alternative investment community.

Our business is to help you execute your business. When transactional, regulatory or operational questions arise, it's imperative to have an experienced and trusted advisor in easy reach. Weaver's team offers accessible, comprehensive support so managers can focus on their primary responsibility—charting investment strategy.
