Robert Henry Joins Weaver as Partner, Tax and Strategic Business Services in the San Antonio Office

SAN ANTONIO, Texas (February 12, 2013) – Robert W. Henry, CPA has joined Weaver, the largest independent accounting firm in the Southwest, as a partner in tax and strategic business services, working in the firm's San Antonio office.

Henry brings to Weaver more than 10 years of “Big Four” public accounting experience. His practice focuses on assisting large and mid-size companies with income tax compliance, implementation of complex tax-planning strategies and representation before the Internal Revenue Service. Throughout his career, he has served a range of companies, from Fortune 100 to family-owned businesses, in the technology, oil and gas, telecommunications, construction and engineering and manufacturing industries. Henry will be leading Weaver's practice in research and development tax credits in addition to serving the ongoing tax needs of his clients.

“Robert's background and skills in tax compliance and implementing complex tax-planning strategies makes him well-suited for Weaver,” said Tommy D. Lawler, Weaver's managing partner and CEO. “We believe our San Antonio clients will benefit from his extensive experience working with large and mid-size companies on tax matters.”

Henry joins Weaver from Ernst & Young where he served as a tax account leader and as the firm's national telecommunications industry resident.

Henry's professional memberships include the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants and the Texas Society of Certified Public Accountants. He earned a Master of Science degree in accounting and a Bachelor of Science degree in accounting from Trinity University.
