Sindhu Rajesh Joins Weaver as Partner in Assurance Services

DALLAS-FORT WORTH, Texas (November 4, 2015) – Sindhu Rajesh, CPA, CFE recently joined Weaver, the largest independent accounting firm in the Southwest, as a partner in Weaver’s assurance services practice.

Rajesh focuses on audit, review and compilation services primarily in the investment services industry, specifically to venture funds, private equity funds, real estate funds and hedge funds. She has also provided audit services for private foundations and trusts, as well as the entertainment and manufacturing industries.

“Sindhu’s extensive experience with the investment services industry supports Weaver’s growth strategy in the L.A. office,” said Matt Anderson, partner-in-charge of west coast services.

She brings nearly 17 years of experience to Weaver, having spent 15 years with Rothstein Kass, which recently merged with KPMG.

“Sindhu’s deep knowledge and experience in this area make her a great fit for Weaver,” said John Mackel, Weaver’s managing partner and CEO. “We know that our firm will benefit from having her on our team.”

Rajesh frequently speaks on topics including due diligence for fund managers, real estate structures, valuation, accounting and auditing updates. She is a member of the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants, the California Society of CPAs and the Association of Certified Fraud Examiners. Rajesh graduated with a Bachelor of Commerce degree with an emphasis in accounting and auditing from Bombay University, India.
