Weaver Joins Allinial Global and Expands International Resources

HOUSTON, TEXAS (December 9, 2020) – Weaver, a national CPA and advisory firm based in Texas with offices on both coasts, has expanded its international reach by joining Allinial Global, a member-based association dedicated to the success of independent accounting and consulting firms. With nearly 250 independent members, our membership in Allinial Global provides Weaver a global coalition of expertise via extensive connections in the Americas, Europe, the Middle East, India, Africa and the Asia Pacific Region.

“This move will significantly enhance Weaver’s ability to offer the quality and depth of services our clients need,” said Vince Houk, Weaver’s Partner-in-Charge of International Tax Services.

“By joining Allinial, we have access to firms world-wide with capabilities similar to ours; expanding our capacity to offer comprehensive accounting and advisory services to clients with multi-national operations,” added Alyssa Martin, National Practice Leader of Large Markets and Public Entities at Weaver.

“Weaver’s international practice continues on its upward trajectory,” said John Mackel, CEO of Weaver. “Under Vince Houk’s leadership, we look forward to collaborating with an elite group of firms through Allinial to offer a full portfolio of services to global companies, and to enable local service delivery where our clients need it.”

The member firms of Allinial Global generate more than $4 billion in collective revenues and have access to a broad array of resources to benefit their clients in key impact areas including international connections and global industry practice communities.

“We’re thrilled to welcome Weaver to Allinial Global as our newest member in providing high quality service to clients throughout the world,” said Mark Koziel, Allinial’s CEO. “Weaver’s international focus, extensive industry knowledge and far-ranging service capabilities make them an excellent fit for our worldwide community of best-in-class firms.”
