Weaver Recognizes Senior Associate, Joshua Castille, for Earning Top Honors from the Institute of Internal Auditors

HOUSTON, TEXAS (December 3, 2020) –Weaver, the 35th largest public accounting and advisory firm in the United States, is honored to recognize Joshua Castille, CPA, CIA, for earning the highest score on a Institute of Internal Auditors (IIA) 2019 certification exam. Castille, a member of the Dallas Chapter of the IIA, was presented with the Dr. Glenn Sumners Award at the IIA all-virtual International Conference in early November for his academic achievement in earning the Certified Internal Auditor (CIA) designation.

“The CIA exam is a rigorous assessment and we are thrilled to learn of Josh’s impressive accomplishment,” said John Wauson, Partner-in-Charge of Risk Advisory Services. “A true team player, Josh delivers exceptional skill, dedication and a practical approach to his projects; it is no surprise that he has received top honors from the IIA.”

Castille joined Weaver as an intern in August of 2018 and was awarded “Rookie of the Year” in Weaver’s Risk Advisory Services team in 2019. As a senior associate, Castille focuses on internal audit services including, analysis and documentation of key processes and internal controls.

“We are delighted for Josh to have received the Dr. Glenn Summers Award from the IIA,” said Managing Partner, John Mackel. “It is a high commendation to be recognized in the industry for this scholastic success, and a testament to Josh’s professional commitment.”

Castille is a Certified Public Accountant (CPA) and a Certified Internal Auditor (CIA). He earned a Bachelor of Science in accounting from Louisiana State University and a Master of Science in accounting from The University of Texas at Dallas.
